10 NATHANIEL CAYLOR, et al.,

11 Plaintiffs,

12 v.

13 CITY OF SEATTLE, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. C11-1217RAJ

ORDER

14 This matter comes before the court on the statement of Plaintiffs and the guardian
15 ad litem (“GAL”) for Plaintiff W.C., who is a minor. Dkt. # 177. The court required that 16 statement in its June 22, 2015 order and required additional disclosures in its June 26,
17 2015 order.

18 The statement consists of the trust agreement that the GAL proposes to execute on 19 W.C.’s behalf. The court is satisfied that the trust agreement adequately protects the 20 interests of W.C., and therefore approves it. The GAL shall execute it and register the 21 trust with the King County Superior Court, which will be responsible for supervision of 22 the trust.

23 The GAL has provided information from the trustee indicating that he expects 24 administration costs to range from $4,000 to $5,000 in the first year of the trust, and from 25 $2,500 to $4,500 for subsequent years. That amounts to administration expenses of 26 between 1.67% of the $150,000 corpus of the trust and 3.33%. Because those expenses
27 are substantial when compared to the corpus of the trust, the court orders as a condition
28 ORDER – 1

1 of its approval of the trust that Plaintiff Nathaniel Caylor shall contribute an additional 2 $10,000 to its corpus. Mr. Caylor previously offered to contribute that amount if the 3 court deemed it necessary.

4 Dated this 23rd day of July, 2015.
